

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Dollar Social.

A dollar social will be held by the Ladies Union of the Central Christian church this evening at the church. A good program has been prepared and all are invited.

Society to Meet

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Protestant temple will meet Friday evening May 9 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Helmick, 616 Benoni avenue. Miss Nettie Johnson will be the leader and the hostesses will be Mrs. Helmick, Mrs. Louise Fox, Mrs. D. L. L. Yost and Mrs. Joseph Fleming.

Delegates Entertained.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Reed were at home yesterday afternoon at their home on Fairmont avenue to the delegates in the city attending the Missionary conference of the M. E. church. Approximately 75 guests were entertained during the afternoon. The Reed home was handsomely decorated in dogwood, crab apple blossoms and other spring flowers and shrubbery and the centenary color, yellow, was carried out by the use of daisies and yellow shaded colors.

In the receiving line were Mrs. W. D. Reed, Mrs. Levi B. Harr, Mrs. Samuel Leeper, Mrs. J. E. Wells, Mesdames E. W. Howard and Fred Helmick presided at the table and they were assisted in serving by Mesdames C. F. Crane, H. J. Ross and W. J. Boydston. Following the evening session an informal reception was held and Mrs. Jennie Engle and Mrs. Kemple White presided at the tea table.

Entertaining Today.

Mesdames A. L. Lehman and J. A. Meredith are entertaining a number of friends at auction bridge at the home of the former on Walnut avenue this afternoon in honor of a number of out of town guests in the city.

Elks Dance Tonight.

The regular weekly dance of the local lodge B. P. O. E. will take place tonight at the club rooms in the Dev-any building and an unusually delightful evening is anticipated by the Elks and their ladies who will attend the function. Excellent music has been provided for the dancers. Howdell Fleming's orchestra will furnish the music. These dances are proving exceedingly popular and are eagerly anticipated by those who attend.

Returned from South.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Kelley and son, James have returned from St. Petersburg, Fla., where they had spent the winter. En route home they visited several days in Washington and at Knobley Farms, Mineral county. They have taken up their residence in their property on Locust avenue.

Gerver-Cole.

The marriage of Miss Bertha May Cole of Grafton and Benjamin F. Gerver of Los Angeles, Cal., was solemnized yesterday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride's brother J. Floyd Cole on Chicago St. The Rev. W. J. Eddy, pastor of the first Baptist church performed the marriage ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cole of Grafton and is connected with one of the leading families of Taylor county. She has frequently been the guest here of her brother and has many friends in this city. Mr. Gerver is in the Signal Corps service of the U. S. government and is stationed in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Gerver left last evening where they will spend a few days after which they will take up their residence in Washington.
